ORDAIN 14 OFFICERS AT CHRISTIAN CHURCH SUNDAY EVENING 2ND

Ordaining service for fourteen new officers of the Roanoke Rapids Christian Church is set for Sunday evening, August 2nd, according to announcement made by C. Radcliffe, treasurer. He further states improvements are being made in the church building and fine work is being accomplished under the leadership of the new pastor, Mr. Traylor.

He announces the Tobacco Tags will put on a program Saturday night for which tickets are now on sale and says any contributions to the church building fund may be made to him.

Christian Science

Sunday service, 11 a.m.

Wednesday service, 8 p.m.

Reading Room open every Tuesday and Friday from 3 to 5. The public is cordially invited to attend our services and visit our Reading Room.

Subject Sunday: "Love".
923 Roanoke Ave.

Presbyterian Circle and Auxiliary Holds Meeting Next Tuesday

The Woman's Auxiliary of the Presbyterian Church will meet Tuesday afternoon, August 4th, at 3:30, at the home of Mrs. T. O. Wilson.

This will be a combined meeting of both the regular Circle and Auxiliary.

Every member is urged to be present. Mrs. Bill Batton will have charge of the program, and Mrs. Pendleton Grizzard the devotional.

Ebenezer Church

Our "Cokesbury Course" at Ebenezer last week proved to be successful for both teacher and student. Mr. McMurray Richey of Texas, also a religious student of Duke University, was much interested in this work, and we enjoyed his teachings. His subject was "The Life of Christ." About eighteen students attended regularly and took this as a credit course. Mr. Richey returned to his home Saturday after six nights of faithful service here.

Revival services begin Wednesday night, July 29th, at 8:00, and will continue until the 6th of August. There will not be an All Day Service on Sunday, August 2nd. Quarterly Conference will be held Sunday P. M. and revival service Sunday night as usual. Afternoon services will be decided upon during the first services.

Everybody is invited!

IN MEMORIAM

Sacred to the memory of our husband and father, G. R. Pulley, who passed away 7 years ago August 1, 1929.

I miss you now, my heart is sore,
As time goes by I miss you more;
Your loving smile, your gentle face,

No one can fill your vacant place.
The depth of sorrow we can not tell,

The loss of one we love so well,
And while he lies in peaceful sleep,
His memory we shall always keep.

Loving wife and children.

Epworth League

The Epworth League of the Weldon Methodist Church sponsored a three-act musical comedy, "Cool Knights," Friday evening, July 24, in the Weldon school auditorium. The proceeds went to the mission work.

A baby popularity contest was also featured and the silver loving cup for the most popular baby was presented to little Miss Alice Joyner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Joyner.

Tent Revival

The big Tent Revival is now in progress with the tent located on Roanoke Avenue, near the Junction. Services are conducted every evening at 7:30, and Sundays services are held at 3 o'clock in the afternoon as well as the regular 7:30 evening services. "The public is cordially invited to attend and hear the full Gospel Truths," by Rev. W. T. Morefield.

Circle Meeting

The Lottie Moon Circle of the Weldon Baptist Church met Tuesday evening in the home of Mrs. J. R. Crewe on Elm Street with Mrs. Crewe and Mrs. Burley Hamill as joint hostesses. Mrs. S. W. Neal, Jr., opened the meeting with the scripture reading and made a short talk on prayer and led in prayer. Mrs. C. R. Daniel had charge of the program. Ice cream and cake were served. There were twenty members present.

Miss Mildred Burton, Ophelia Daniel, Elizabeth Glover spent Sunday at Ocean View, Va.

Mrs. Mary Gale of Boston, Mass., is visiting Mrs. C. D. Thomason.

Mrs. Carrie Murray and son, Fredric Wayne, returned Monday from a visit to relatives in Cole-

In memory of Roy Otis Dickerson, Jr., who died August 1st, 1935. One year ago today you left us; For to go to a better home to stay. But we think of you each moment, And hope to meet you some sweet day.

Though your crib it is empty,
And our arms they are bare.
We know you are a little angel
Up in Heaven, there, somewhere.
Father and mother,
Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Dickerson.

U. S. Sea Scout Base Organized By Veteran of Foreign Navies

MEMBERS of the Sea Scout Base at Port Gleason, on Goose Pond near Scranton, Pennsylvania, learn the elements of seamanship under the tutelage of Captain E. K. Roden, who began his career as a cadet in the Swedish Navy, held a commission in the Argentine Navy during the revolt against President Celman in the 1890's, and later served as an officer in the U. S. Merchant Marine.

Although a resident of the inland city of Scranton, Captain Roden continues to find an outlet for his love of the sea in his Sea Scout activities and as Director of the School of Navigation, International Correspondence Schools. Textbooks on navigation prepared by him are being used in teaching the nautical science to men and officers of the merchant marine, the enlisted personnel of the U. S. Coast Guard, and the enlisted personnel of the U. S. Marine Corps.

Miss Elizabeth Massey spent Sunday with her parents at Pleasant Hill.

Prof. P. A. Reid, who has been attending summer school at Chapel Hill, returned home Sunday. He was accompanied home by Mrs. Reid, who has been visiting in Pilot Mountain.

Miss Blonnie Taylor will return to Raleigh Friday after spending her vacation here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Taylor.

Miss Essie Wayne Mason is visiting her aunt, Mrs. Donald J. McDonald, in Kingstree, S. C.

Mrs. Murray Simmons and Miss Arnie Lewter spent last week in New York.

L. A. Ashton of Newport News spent the week-end here with Mrs. Ashton.
